Liners offer £40 cruises

Four liners of the Ellerman and Bucknall Line operating to South Africa are to make cruises between Middlesbrough, Rotterdam, Hamburg and London next summer. The 13,500-ton ships, City of Durham, City of Exeter, City of Port Elizabeth and City of York, have just been refurbished at a cost of £100,000.

Each carries 100 passengers but also has a large cargo capacity. The cruises, lasting six or seven days with fares from £40-£70, will be made while collecting cargo for South Africa. A spokesman for the line said: "We were nearly always full on the South Africa run."
